POLICY COMPANY

The response from the progressive protagonists has been to analyze the way that business is actually conducted, looking for improvements, as well as scrutinizing every element of associated cost. One area that is generating particular attention is ship supplies where the job in maintaining vessels and their crews is fundamental to ensuring operational efficiencies, high morale and overall safe passage. If sourcing a quality crew remains one of the biggest challenges in the industry, keeping them happy and healthy while on board should be a fundamental modus operandi for all onboard management. Our company is built on strong values, aiming to serve our customers and the seafarers best possible. Everything we do ends up in the hands of a seafarer, offshore or navy crew and thus affects their motivation and wellbeing expressed in our mission "Expert Care to Each Ship and Offshore Location".

So we strive to maintain the highest legal and ethical standards in all business practices.
